STIPULATED PROTECTIVE
ORDER

[DISCOVERY DOCUMENT: REFERRED TO MAGISTRATE
JUDGE ALICIA G. ROSENBERG]

Jury Trial Demanded

17
18
19 1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS: Discovery in this action is likely 20 to involve production of confidential, proprietary, or private information for which 21 special protection from public disclosure and from use for any purpose other than 22 prosecuting this litigation may be warranted. Accordingly, the Parties hereby 23 stipulate to and petition the Court to enter the following Stipulated Protective Order.
24 The Parties acknowledge that this Order does not confer blanket protections on all 25 disclosures or responses to discovery and that the protection it affords from public 26 disclosure and use extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled 27 to confidential treatment under the applicable legal principles. The Parties further 28 acknowledge, as set forth in Section 12, below, that this Stipulated Protective Order

1 does not entitle them to file confidential information under seal; Civil Local Rule
2 79-5 and paragraph 6 of Judge Fischer's Standing Order set forth the procedures that 3 must be followed and the standards that will be applied when a party seeks 4 permission from the Court to file material under seal.

5 2. GOOD CAUSE STATEMENT: This action is likely to involve the 6 production and exchange of confidential, sensitive information that could cause 7 business, competitive, and personal harm if disclosed publicly or, without 8 restrictions, between the Parties. This action is also likely to involve trade secrets, 9 operating plans, market analyses, nonpublic contracts, negotiating positions and 10 business negotiation strategies, and financial information that if it were to become 11 public could provide confidential, competitively sensitive information to the market 12 and competitors and could put the producing party at a competitive disadvantage.
13 The Parties are also competitors and may be producing information that may give 14 the receiving party an unfair competitive advantage if it is able to review and/or use 15 that information without restriction. The Parties seek to protect their
16 CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION and HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL
17 INFORMATION from disclosure to avoid the harms described above, and others,
18 and have stipulated to protect limited categories of confidential and proprietary
19 information from public disclosure or unrestricted disclosure between the Parties.

20 3. Scope of Order: This Order is entered to facilitate the production, 21 exchange, and discovery of documents and information that merit confidential
22 treatment. The protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order cover not only
23 CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION and HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL
24 INFORMATION (as defined herein), but also (1) any information copied or 25 extracted from CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION and/or HIGHLY 26 CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION; (2) all copies, excerpts, summaries, or 27 compilations of CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION and/or HIGHLY 28

1 CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION; and (3) any testimony, conversations, or 2 presentations by Parties or their Counsel that might reveal CONFIDENTIAL
3 INFORMATION and/or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION.

4 (a) "CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION" shall mean trade secrets
5 or other confidential research, development, or commercially sensitive information
6 (regardless of how it is generated, stored, or maintained) pursuant to Federal Rule of 7 Civil Procedure 26(c), or any document, transcript, or other material containing such 8 information that has not been published or otherwise made publicly available.
9 Materials designated "CONFIDENTIAL," or the equivalent thereof, shall be treated
10 as CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, subject to the provisions set forth in this 11 Order.

12 (b) "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION" shall mean
13 extremely sensitive CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, the disclosure of which to 14 another Party or non-party would create a substantial risk of serious and 15 irreparable harm to the disclosing party or its clients. Materials designated
16 "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY," or "HIGHLY 17 CONFIDENTIAL – OUTSIDE COUNSEL ONLY," or the equivalent thereof, shall 18 be treated as HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, subject to the 19 provisions set forth in this Order.

20 4. Designating Confidential Material: Materials designated as 21 "CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION," "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL –
22 ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY," or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – OUTSIDE
23 COUNSEL ONLY," pursuant to this Order shall be designated and marked as 24 follows:

25 (a) Documents: Documents may be designated as 26 CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION by placing the legend "CONFIDENTIAL" or 27 an equivalent thereof, on any such document or image. Documents may be 28

1 designated as HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION by placing the legend
2 “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY,” or “HIGHLY 3 CONFIDENTIAL – OUTSIDE COUNSEL ONLY,” or an equivalent thereof, on 4 any such document or image. Unless the Parties otherwise agree, such legend shall 5 be placed upon every page of each document or image containing CONFIDENTIAL
6 INFORMATION or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION.

7 Notwithstanding the foregoing, Excel documents or any other type of electronically
8 stored information produced in native format (together, “Natively Produced ESI”)
9 containing CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL
10 INFORMATION shall be designated by (i) producing a TIFF (or similar electronic) 11 placeholder image corresponding to the Natively Produced ESI that includes the 12 “CONFIDENTIAL,” “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES
13 ONLY,” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – OUTSIDE COUNSEL ONLY” mark
14 and (ii) including “CONFIDENTIAL,” “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL –
15 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY,” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – OUTSIDE
16 COUNSEL ONLY” in the file name of the Natively Produced ESI, where 17 practicable.

18 (b) Non-Paper Media: Where CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION
19 or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION is produced in a non-paper
20 medium (e.g., video tape, audio tape, computer disks, etc.) that does not include
21 TIFF images, the appropriate confidentiality notice should be placed on the medium, 22 if possible, and its container, if any.

23 (c) Physical Exhibits: The confidential status of a physical exhibit 24 shall be indicated by placing a label on said physical exhibit.

25 (d) Written Discovery: In the case of CONFIDENTIAL
26 INFORMATION or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION incorporated in 27 answers to interrogatories, responses to requests for admission, or other written 28

1 discovery, the appropriate confidentiality designation shall be placed on the first 2 page of the document and on each page containing answers or responses that contain
 3 CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL
 4 INFORMATION.

5 (e) Depositions: The designating party shall make reasonable efforts
 6 to designate as “CONFIDENTIAL,” “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL –
 7 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY,” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – OUTSIDE
 8 COUNSEL ONLY” those specific portions of a deposition transcript that contain
 9 CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL
 10 INFORMATION. Unless otherwise designated at the deposition and on the record,
 11 the entire transcript of a deposition shall be treated as “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL 12 – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” until thirty (30) days after receipt of the final 13 deposition transcript by counsel for the witness. At the deposition and on the 14 record, or in writing before the thirty (30) days have expired, the witness, his or her 15 current or former employer, or their counsel may designate portions of the 16 deposition transcript as “CONFIDENTIAL,” “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL –
 17 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY,” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – OUTSIDE
 18 COUNSEL ONLY.” The notice shall be sent to any person known to have a copy
 19 of the transcript and shall reference this Order and identify the pages and lines so 20 designated.

21 5. Inadvertent Non-Designation: The failure to designate
 22 CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION as “CONFIDENTIAL” or HIGHLY 23 CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION as “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL –
 24 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – OUTSIDE
 25 COUNSEL ONLY” before or at the time of disclosure shall not itself operate as a 26 waiver of a disclosing party’s right to designate such information as
 27 “CONFIDENTIAL,” “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES
 28

1 ONLY,” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – OUTSIDE COUNSEL ONLY.” If a
2 disclosing party discovers that it produced CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION that
3 was not designated as “CONFIDENTIAL,” or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL
4 INFORMATION that was not designated “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL –
5 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – OUTSIDE
6 COUNSEL ONLY,” the disclosing party may, within a reasonably prompt time
7 following the discovery of the non-designation, notify the receiving party or parties, 8 in writing, of the error and identify (by production Bates number, if applicable) the 9 affected material and its new designation. Promptly after providing such notice, the 10 disclosing party shall provide re-labeled copies of the material to each receiving 11 party reflecting the new designation. The receiving party or parties will replace the 12 inadvertently non-designated material with the newly designated material and will 13 make reasonable efforts to destroy the originally non-designated material. In the 14 event the receiving party discloses incorrectly- or non-designated information to 15 individuals that would not be authorized to review that information under this Order 16 (if it had been properly designated) and subsequently receives notice that the 17 information is designated as “CONFIDENTIAL,” “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL –
18 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY,” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – OUTSIDE
19 COUNSEL ONLY,” the receiving party shall make reasonable efforts to promptly 20 retrieve the information and shall promptly notify the disclosing party of the 21 distribution and the identity of the person who received the information.

22 6. Challenging Designation of Materials: Any receiving party may, in 23 good faith, challenge the designation of any document or information as
24 “CONFIDENTIAL,” “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES
25 ONLY,” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – OUTSIDE COUNSEL ONLY,” by 26 notifying the designating party in writing and identifying the challenged material by 27 production Bates number or deposition page and line number. Such an objection 28

1 may be made at any time, and shall, for each objection (a) identify the specific 2 Document (e.g., by Bates or exhibit number) or transcript excerpt (e.g., by page and 3 line number), (b) state the current confidentiality designation, and (c) provide a brief
4 description of why the party disagrees with that particular designation. The 5 challenging party shall initiate the dispute resolution process under Civil Local Rule
6 37.1 et seq. If the objection cannot be resolved by agreement within ten (10)
7 business days of the date of service of the written objection, the designating party
8 shall move the Court to confirm the confidentiality designation or redaction within 9 twenty (20) business days of the service of the written objection. Any opposition to 10 such motion shall be filed within ten (10) business days of the filing of such motion.
11 Any reply in further support of such motion shall be filed within five (5) business
12 days of the opposition. In the event that a motion to confirm a confidentiality 13 designation or redaction is made in a timely manner, the document or information 14 whose designation or redaction is objected to shall continue to be treated as
15 CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL
16 INFORMATION, as applicable, until the motion has been decided by the Court. In 17 the event that a motion to confirm a confidentiality designation or redaction is 18 denied, the designating party shall cause the confidentiality legend or redaction to be 19 removed from such documents within ten (10) business days following entry of the 20 Court's order. The designating party shall bear the burden of supporting the 21 designation.

22 Information designated "CONFIDENTIAL," "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL –
23 ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY," or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – OUTSIDE
24 COUNSEL ONLY" by a designating party shall be treated as such by a receiving 25 party unless otherwise agreed to by the designating party or otherwise ordered by 26 the Court.

27

28

1 The failure of a receiving party expressly to challenge the designation of any
2 document or information as “CONFIDENTIAL,” “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL –
3 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY,” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – OUTSIDE
4 COUNSEL ONLY” at the time of disclosure shall not constitute a waiver of the 5 right to challenge the designation at any subsequent time.

6 7. Access to and use of CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION: A receiving 7 party may access or use CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION that is disclosed or 8 produced by a disclosing party only in connection with the prosecution of, defense 9 of, appeal of, attempted settlement of, or the enforcement of insurance rights with 10 respect to, this action. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court or permitted in 11 writing by each disclosing party, CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION may be 12 disclosed only to the categories of persons below and under the conditions described 13 in this Order:

14 (a) the Parties to this action and their counsel, including both in-15 house and outside counsel, and including counsel’s support staff and outside service 16 organizations, as well as current officers, directors and employees of corporate 17 Parties;

18 (b) former officers, directors, and employees of corporate Parties;

19 (c) witnesses and prospective witnesses of a Party who have a need
20 to know the information to assist counsel in connection with this action;

21 (d) the Parties’ insurers, including the insurers’ support staff and 22 service organizations;

23 (e) court reporters taking testimony and deposition videographers
24 recording testimony and their support personnel;

25 (f) the Court and any authorized court personnel;

26 (g) independent consultants or experts retained by counsel for 27 assistance with respect to this action;

28

- 1 (h) deposition witnesses and participants;
- 2 (i) any mediator or arbitrator engaged by the Parties to this action;
- 3 (j) vendors retained by or for the Parties to assist in preparing for
- 4 pretrial discovery, trial, and/or hearings; and
- 5 (k) any individual who either prepared a document that has been
- 6 designated as “CONFIDENTIAL” or who is identified on the face of such document
- 7 as a recipient of the document through means other than the discovery process in
- 8 this action.

9 8. Execution of Confidentiality Agreement: Prior to disclosure of

10 CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION to persons described in Paragraphs 7(b), (c),

11 (d), (e), (g), (h), and (j) such person shall be shown a copy of this Order and shall

12 sign the “Agreement to Respect Confidential Information and Highly Confidential

13 Information” (Exhibit A).

14 9. Access to and use of HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION: A

15 receiving party may access or use HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

16 that is disclosed or produced by a disclosing party only in connection with the 17 prosecution of, defense of, appeal of, attempted settlement of, or the enforcement of 18 insurance rights with respect to, this action.

19 10. Access to and use of HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

20 that is designated “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY”:

21 Unless otherwise ordered by the Court or permitted in writing by each disclosing

22 party, HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION that is designated “HIGHLY

23 CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” may be disclosed only to the 24 categories of persons below and under the conditions described in this Order:

- 25 (a) the receiving party’s outside counsel of record who have entered
- 26 an appearance in this action, as well as employees and staff of said outside counsel
- 27
- 28

1 of record to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for this 2 action;

3 (b) up to three (3) in-house counsel for the Parties who either have 4 responsibility for making decisions dealing directly with the litigation of the action,
5 or who are assisting outside counsel in the litigation of the action and have executed
6 the “Agreement to Respect Confidential Information and Highly Confidential
7 Information” (Exhibit A);

8 (c) experts of the receiving party (1) to whom disclosure is 9 reasonably necessary for this action and (2) who have signed the “Agreement to 10 Respect Confidential Information and Highly Confidential Information” (Exhibit
11 A);

12 (d) court reporters taking testimony and deposition videographers 13 recording testimony and their support personnel who have signed the “Agreement to 14 Respect Confidential Information and Highly Confidential Information” (Exhibit
15 A);

16 (e) the Court and any authorized court personnel;

17 (f) any mediator or arbitrator engaged by the Parties to this action;

18 (g) the producing party’s current employees, officers, and directors;

19 (h) vendors retained by or for the Parties to assist in preparing for 20 pretrial discovery, trial, and/or hearings who have signed the “Agreement to 21 Respect Confidential Information and Highly Confidential Information” (Exhibit 22 A); and

23 (i) any individual who either prepared a document that has been 24 designated as “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” or 25 who is identified on the face of such document as a recipient of the document
26 through means other than the discovery process in this action.

11. Access to and use of HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION that is designated “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – OUTSIDE COUNSEL ONLY”:
 The Parties acknowledge that in-house counsel may on occasion be involved in competitive decision making. “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – OUTSIDE COUNSEL ONLY” means that subset of HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION that a Party believes in good faith is of such a current, sensitive, and competitive nature that it should not be shared with the opposite Party, including in-house counsel, given the Parties’ status as competitors. It is the intention of the parties to exercise reasonable restraint and designate documents and information under this more restrictive level of confidentiality only where there is a good faith belief that there would be a potential of material harm absent the additional protections afforded by the “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – OUTSIDE COUNSEL ONLY” designation. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court or permitted in writing by each disclosing party, HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION that is designated “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – OUTSIDE COUNSEL ONLY” may be disclosed only to the categories of persons below and under the conditions described in this Order:

(a) the receiving party’s outside counsel of record who have entered an appearance in this action, as well as employees and staff of said outside counsel of record to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for this action;

(b) experts of the receiving party (1) to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this action and (2) who have signed the “Agreement to Respect Confidential Information and Highly Confidential Information” (Exhibit A);

(c) court reporters taking testimony and deposition videographers recording testimony and their support personnel who have signed the “Agreement to

Respect Confidential Information and Highly Confidential Information”

(Exhibit A);

(d) the Court and any authorized court personnel;

(e) any mediator or arbitrator engaged by the Parties to this action;

(f) the producing party’s current employees, officers, and directors;

(g) vendors retained by or for the Parties to assist in preparing for pretrial discovery, trial, and/or hearings who have signed the “Agreement to

Respect Confidential Information and Highly Confidential Information”

(Exhibit A); and

(h) any individual who either prepared a document that has been designated as “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – OUTSIDE COUNSEL ONLY” or who is identified on the face of such document as a recipient of the document

through means other than the discovery process in this action.

12. Filing Under Seal: When a Party seeks to file with the Court any papers that contain or reference CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION and/or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION of any other designating party, the filing Party shall provide the designating party with written notice of its intent to file the designated information no less than seven (7) calendar days prior to the planned filing. If the designating party objects to the public filing of the designated information, it must file an application to file under seal, pursuant to Civil Local Rule 79-5 and paragraph 6 of Judge Fischer’s Standing Order, showing good cause, beyond this Order, why its CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION and/or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION should be sealed. The filing party must file the CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION and/or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION in its filing conditionally under seal, pending a ruling from the Court on the designating party’s application to seal, and also file a public version

1 with all CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION and/or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL
2 INFORMATION redacted.

3 13. Copies of Confidential Materials: Nothing herein shall restrict a 4 qualified recipient from making working copies, abstracts, digests, and analyses of
5 CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION and HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL
6 INFORMATION for use in connection with this action, but such materials shall be 7 deemed to have the same level of protection as other CONFIDENTIAL
8 INFORMATION and HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION.

9 14. Inadvertent Disclosure by a Receiving Party: Should any document or 10 information designated as “CONFIDENTIAL,” “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL –
11 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY,” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – OUTSIDE
12 COUNSEL ONLY” be disclosed, through inadvertence or otherwise, to any person
13 not authorized under this Order, then the Party responsible for the inadvertent 14 disclosure shall make reasonable best efforts to bind such person to the terms of this 15 Order; and shall, as soon as practicable, but in any event, not longer than two (2) 16 business days after discovery by counsel of record of the disclosure, (a) inform such 17 person of all the provisions of this Order; (b) request such person to sign the 18 “Agreement to Respect Confidential Information and Highly Confidential
19 Information” (Exhibit A); (c) request such person to return and/or destroy all copies
20 of the CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL
21 INFORMATION; and (d) notify the designating party in writing of the unauthorized 22 disclosure and the identity of such person.

23 15. No Waiver of Privilege and Clawback Rights: The production of 24 documents by a producing party shall, to the maximum extent permitted by law, be 25 governed by Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5) and Federal Rule of Evidence 26 502 regarding the inadvertent production of material protected by the attorney-client 27 privilege, the work product doctrine, or any other privilege or protection from 28

1 disclosure recognized under applicable law. A party's inadvertent disclosure in 2 connection with this action of information that the disclosing party believes is 3 protected by the attorney-client privilege, the work product doctrine, or any other 4 privilege or immunity from discovery ("Protected Information") shall not constitute 5 a waiver with respect to such privilege or immunity in this or any other action.

6 (a) Notification by the Disclosing Party: In the event of an 7 inadvertent disclosure of Protected Information, the disclosing party may provide 8 notice in writing to the receiving party or parties advising of the inadvertent 9 disclosure, requesting return of the Protected Information, and asserting the basis of 10 the clawback request. Upon such notice, the receiving party or parties shall make no
11 further use of the Protected Information, shall immediately segregate the Protected
12 Information in a manner that will prevent any further disclosure or dissemination,
13 and shall take reasonable steps to retrieve the Protected Information to the extent it
14 was disclosed or disseminated prior to receipt of the notice. Within ten (10)
15 business days of receiving the notice of inadvertent disclosure, the receiving party
16 shall take reasonable steps to return all Protected Information in its possession, 17 custody, or control, or shall provide written confirmation that such information has 18 been deleted. The receiving party's reasonable steps shall not require the return or 19 destruction of Protected Information that is stored on backup storage media made in 20 accordance with regular data backup procedures for disaster recovery purposes.
21 Backup storage media will not be restored for purposes of returning or certifying 22 destruction of Protected Information, but such retained information shall continue to 23 be treated in accordance with this Order.

24 (b) Notification by the Receiving Party: In the event a receiving 25 party receives information that appears on its face to be subject to the attorney-client 26 privilege, the work product doctrine, or any other privilege or immunity from 27 discovery, the receiving party shall refrain from reviewing the information any more 28

1 than is essential to ascertain that the information is privileged, and shall immediately 2 notify the disclosing party in writing that he or she possesses information that 3 appears on its face to be privileged. The disclosing party shall then have ten (10)
 4 business days after receiving the notice to request the return of the information. If 5 the disclosing party requests return of the information, the receiving party shall 6 immediately return the information to the disclosing party and destroy any other 7 copies, and confirm the return and destruction of the materials in writing.

8 (c) Disputes: The return of any discovery material to the disclosing
 9 party shall not in any way preclude the receiving party from asking the Court for a 10 ruling that the disclosed information was never privileged or otherwise immune 11 from discovery; however, the receiving party may not assert as a basis for the relief 12 it seeks the fact or circumstance that such allegedly privileged documents were 13 inadvertently produced in this action. In the event there is a dispute over whether 14 the information at issue is protected from disclosure by virtue of a privilege or 15 immunity from discovery, counsel shall undertake reasonable, good faith efforts to 16 resolve the issue without intervention from the Court pursuant to Civil Local Rule
 17 37-1. To the extent counsel cannot resolve the issue, they will submit a joint 18 stipulation to the Court that complies with the requirements set forth in Civil Local 19 Rule 37-1. The party asserting the privilege shall bear the burden of persuasion with 20 respect to the applicability of the privilege. Allegedly privileged documents shall 21 remain protected against disclosure and use during the pendency of any dispute over 22 their status.

23 16. No Application to Information Available Publicly or Otherwise: The 24 restrictions and obligations set forth herein relating to information designated
 25 “CONFIDENTIAL,” “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES
 26 ONLY,” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – OUTSIDE COUNSEL ONLY” shall not 27 apply to any information that: (a) the designating party agrees, or the Court rules, is 28

1 already public knowledge; (b) the designating party agrees, or the Court rules, has 2 become public knowledge other than as a result of disclosure by a receiving party in 3 violation of this Order; or (c) has come or shall come into a receiving party's lawful
4 and legitimate possession independently of the designating party. Nothing herein
5 shall be deemed to prohibit discussions with any person of any information
6 designated "CONFIDENTIAL," "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS' 7 EYES ONLY," or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – OUTSIDE COUNSEL ONLY" if 8 that person already has or obtains lawful and legitimate possession thereof from a 9 source other than the disclosing party.

10 17. Court Proceedings: The Parties, in consultation with the Court, will 11 confer and attempt to agree before trial or hearings on the procedures under which
12 CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION and HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL
13 INFORMATION may be used at trial or hearings. The Parties shall give notice of 14 the terms of any agreement or order establishing these procedures to each non-party
15 who produced CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION and/or HIGHLY 16 CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION that might be used or introduced at trial or 17 hearings.

18 18. Conclusion of Litigation: Unless the undersigned counsel agree 19 otherwise in writing, within ninety (90) calendar days after the final conclusion of 20 all aspects of this action by judgment not subject to further appeal or by settlement,
21 each Party shall take reasonable efforts to see that all CONFIDENTIAL
22 INFORMATION and HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION has been 23 returned or destroyed. Subject to the other terms of this paragraph, whether the 24 protected material is returned or destroyed, upon request of the producing party, the 25 receiving party must submit a written certification to the producing party by the 90 26 day deadline that (a) affirms that the protected material has been returned or 27 destroyed and (b) affirms that the receiving party has not retained any copies, 28

1 abstracts, compilations, summaries or any other format reproducing or capturing any
2 of the protected material. Notwithstanding the foregoing, as to those materials
3 containing CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL
4 INFORMATION that (a) constitute counsel's work product related to this action, (b)
5 were filed with the Court and/or marked as trial exhibits or (c) constitute deposition
6 transcripts and exhibits, counsel may retain such materials if such counsel otherwise
7 comply with this Order with respect to such retained material. The Parties'
8 reasonable efforts shall not require the return or destruction of CONFIDENTIAL
9 INFORMATION or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION from (1) disaster
10 recovery or business continuity backups, (2) data stored in system-generated 11 temporary folders or near-line storage, and/or (3) unstructured departed employee
12 data. Backup storage media will not be restored for purposes of returning or 13 certifying destruction of CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION or HIGHLY 14 CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, but such retained information shall continue to 15 be treated in accordance with the Order.

16 19. Subpoenas in Other Actions: In the event any person or receiving party
17 having possession, custody, or control of any CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION
18 or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION produced in this action receives a 19 subpoena or other process or order to produce such information, such subpoenaed 20 person or entity shall promptly notify by e-mail the attorneys of record of the 21 designating party and shall furnish those attorneys with a copy of said subpoena or 22 other process or order. The receiving party shall not produce the requested
23 CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL
24 INFORMATION unless and until a court of competent jurisdiction so directs, 25 except if the designating party (a) consents, or (b) fails to file a motion to quash or 26 fails to notify the receiving party in writing of its intention to contest the production
27 of the CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL
28

1 INFORMATION prior to the date designated for production of the subpoenaed
2 information, in which event the receiving party may produce on the designated
3 production date, but no earlier. The designating party asserting the confidential 4 treatment shall have the burden of defending against such subpoena, process, or 5 order. The person or Party receiving the subpoena or other process or order shall be 6 entitled to comply with it except to the extent the designating party asserting the 7 confidential treatment is successful in obtaining an order modifying or quashing it.

8 20. Enforcement of this Protective Order and Continuing Jurisdiction: The 9 Court retains jurisdiction even after termination of this action to enforce this Order
10 and to make such amendments, modifications, deletions, and additions to this Order 11 as the Court may from time to time deem appropriate. The recipient of any
12 CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL
13 INFORMATION hereby agrees to subject himself/herself to the jurisdiction of this 14 Court for the purpose of any proceedings related to the performance under, 15 compliance with, or violations of this Order. Any violation of this Order may be 16 punished by any and all appropriate measures including, without limitation, 17 contempt proceedings and/or monetary sanctions. A Party that becomes aware of 18 any breach of this Order shall notify the Party whose information the breach
